

Buddy Pair Communication Plan

Best Buddies International

Friendship and inclusion are at the core of Best Buddies' mission and our hope is for all participants to have a positive experience as they make new connections. Should members struggle to determine a clear expectation for communication, time commitment, and participation, the following action plan can help establish mutually agreed upon boundaries to foster a successful friendship.

Communication Plan: (use the space provided to detail communication expectations, including how often members should be expected to communicate, the best methods – text, phone, Facebook, etc. – and best days and times to connect, based on availability):

Participation Plan: (use the space provided to detail participation expectations, including agreed upon times to spend together, dates, amount of time available for outings, based on availability):

Additional Planning Needs: (outline any additional expectations the buddy pair should agree upon for a successful and sustainable friendship):

I agree that the action plan outlined reflects my expectations, goals, and ideas. I feel confident that by following this action plan, my buddy and I will develop a mutually enriching friendship to the best of our ability. I understand inability to follow this action plan may result in a dissolved match.
